THE YEAR OF ASTRONOMY

Imitating NASA, Sun Dials, Comets and Ice Pops – Immerse yourself in the world of art and nature. Artist and educator, Jalah Harris, will lead artists ages 6-12 and their families on an art adventure exploring the sky above us. A great learning experience for the entire family. Each program will take place at Rentschler Forest Preserve in the Cummins Shelter at 10:00 a.m. The programs are free but enrollment is limited so pre-registration is required by calling the MetroParks at 867-5835 or at 1-877-PARKFUN.
